Just a minute of your time...

The future hasn't been written yet. Each new choice branches the time line. Alter the future for the better by providing your feedback. Did you like something you experienced? Did you hate something you saw? Do you just want to tell us a story? We want to hear all of it. We take all feedback into consideration when planning for the next year and we can't fix things we don't know about.

The theme for 2021 is Time Travel!

Whether you used a machine or accidentally fell into a portal, we are glad your time travel adventure brought you to now. Stick around for a while, although you can always come back.

If your time machine is in need of repair, one of our mechanics will rescrumble the upspin neutrino phase by Sunday. Or you can take one of many returning quantum bubbles that are projected to open just after Closing Ceremonies.

For those of you joining us from the past, take part in our occasional Socratic Dialogs in the panel rooms. Our Rave is an evolution of your Gregorian Chants or a Concertos. Our Vendor's room is similar to the Agora of Athens or the Ottomans' Grand Bazaar.

Time Repair Wanted

Welcome to SNAFU Con! We've been all over the time-sphere and there are things that need to be done around here. Find the time bosses for tasks and quests to keep our time machines in working order. Receive tickets you can exchange for fabulous prizes!

How to Play!

Find a time boss around the convention floor (they'll be wearing a neon yellow hat or armband with a "!" pin) to receive a quest. These quests will vary in difficulty from a quick task to something trickier that may be time consuming. Tickets will be awarded according to the difficulty of the task. Remember, an earnest way to earn tickets is to Volunteer and help SNAFU Con be an amazing event!

Once you have collected enough tickets, you can redeem them at the prize booth in the theme room to choose from many fabulous prizes. Some prizes are limited in quantity so pick them while supplies last!

Rules!

1. Tasks may take you to all areas of the con! Please be respectful of our less adventurous con-goers.
2. Some tasks are repeatable, but some may be a one-time-only deal.
3. Take care of your tickets. SNAFU Con is not responsible for any lost tickets.
4. Prizes are first-come, first-served. But don't despair! The best prizes will change day-by-day to give everyone the best chance at earning something cool!
5. Remember that there is no running in the con areas or the hallways.
6. Have fun, Adventurers!

I went back in time to ancient Rome, and now Facebook is trying to sell me chariot insurance.

The Great Basin Buccaneers

The Great Basin Buccaneers are a group of reenactors local to the Reno area who like to portray Pirates in all their glory. They embrace all phases of piracy: Historical, Fantasy, Steampunk, and so on. We specialize in table top period games, and shenanigans! We be tellers of tall tales, and have been known recruit from the general population to help spread the good word of the Black Flag! Kids, ask our Captain to tell you the tale of the Turtle Tears!

Letters from the Chairs

Visitors, attendees, travelers, saints and scoundrels alike, I bid you welcome to SNAFU Con!

Our wondrous event is here to spark joy in your lives and wonder in your hearts, so prepare yourselves for a wild time! We've been hard at work, all year long, concocting the perfect recipe for giddy excitement – and I believe we've nailed it!

SNAFU Con is my pride and joy, and I'm sure if you ask any of my fellow staff they'll tell you the same thing. Every year, I have an absolute blast, and then mope for about a week when it ends... until I hear about next year's theme and the gears begin turning in my head. At that point, my imagination takes off and I begin the search for new games with glee!

I may have been doing this since Day 1 (and before, if we're to count the proto-events back when all the founders were students at UNR), but I have never grown tired of it. To me, SNAFU Con is an expression of joy: not just a labor of love, but a way of spreading that love to all and sundry. Here you can gush about your favorite things with like-minded people and discover new and wondrous things, be they anime, costumes, games, or off-the-wall one-man shows, all brought to you by our hard-working and passionate volunteers.

It's a veritable nexus of geekhood, and we'd be honored if you would take a moment to enjoy it with us!

SNAFU Con Chair

Hello all!

Well this has been a heck of a year, hasn't it. Oh, it's been two years? I suppose it has. The time traveling we managed to do to get here messed up my sense of time a little bit. Seriously, though, it's been a really tough time for all of us and I'm so proud of all of you to have made it this far.

The team has worked really hard to make this event happen this year in the middle of our biggest challenge ever. Most of us have had personal battles to fight in addition to the con battles and I just want to recognize how hard this year was. You've all done amazing and here we are; we made it.

Times are still tough, but I want you to take a breath (in your mask, please!) and just let the con energy revitalize you.

We had a lot of really hard decisions to make this year but we did everything we could to make this as safe of an event as possible and if you have fun this weekend and stay safe doing it then it's going to make all those hard decisions and unfun policy changes worth doing.

We have some fun games and programming for you to check out. Spend some time at main stage. Check out our amazing artists and vendors. Participate in some panels. Join our Discord and keep in touch with the con people all year long.

Welcome to SNAFU Con 2021. Now go fix the timeline. Or break it. Whatever.

PFS #2-01: Citadel of Corruption

Levels 1-4 • Scott D. Young

A new year dawns for the Pathfinder Society. For the past several years, Pathfinders have explored the edges of the Iobarian wilderness, making new allies and discovering hints at a long-forgotten past. Now, the Decemvirate has decided that it is time for the Pathfinders to do what Pathfinders do best: explore, report, and cooperate! In an ancient cyclopean ruin, the Society seeks to stake their claim with both a new lodge and, hopefully, new insights into Iobaria's remote history. Some secrets are best left buried, however. Will the PCs make a name for themselves as modern day explorers, or will the evil lurking at the heart of the Iobarian dig site consume their hopes and dreams?

PFS #2-03: Catastrophe's Spark

Levels 1-4 • Tineke Bolleman

In the ruined cyclopes city of Min-Khadaim, the Pathfinders search for answers into the disappearance of one of their own and the nature of a dangerous ritual. As the Pathfinders delve ever deeper into Iobaria's lost past, will they find the answers they seek, or will they uncover even greater dangers than those that have already been unleashed?

PFS #2-05: Balancing the Scales

Levels 1-4 • Jessica Catalan

The Sewer Dragons reach out to the Pathfinder Society, concerned about a missing contact. The Pathfinders discover that this is no mere meet and greet, however, as strange events and a mysterious cult become tangled together in a web of mystery.

PFS #2-09: The Seven Secrets of Dacilane Academy

Levels 1-4 • Rigby Bendele

Dacilane Academy, located near the Grand Lodge, is a storied institution that sees to the education of many children of Pathfinders. However, the academy's benefactor, J Dacilane, has recently heard rumors from his students of seven strange phenomena manifesting on campus. Despite his doubts that these are simply the imaginings of students raised on Pathfinder tales, J has called in a favor with the Pathfinder Society to investigate—both to put his students' minds at ease and for the good learning opportunity a Society report about the school would provide. But are there more to these urban legends than meets the eye?

PFS #2-11: The Pathfinder Trials

Level 1 • Sean McGowan

Every year, the Pathfinder Society inducts new classes of recruits into their ranks. The three deans of the Society's schools, the Spells, Scrolls, and Swords, are responsible for ensuring that the new recruits have the basic skills and experience necessary to thrive in the field. PCs participating in this adventure will get to meet all three of the Society's deans and undergo their unique challenges, proving their worth and fitness to join the Pathfinder Society!

PFS #2-13: A Gilded Test

Levels 1-4 • Kalervo Oikarinen

Can the PCs learn the truth before they find themselves too caught-up in the event to escape?

Levels 3-6 • Rigby Bendele

At the request of the Dataphiles faction leader, a team of Starfinders travels to Verces to recruit a mysterious hacktivist who has attempted to contact the Society on multiple occasions, hoping that their expertise can help solve the mystery surrounding the ongoing Data Scourge digital attacks. Another wave of digital interference forces the PCs' ship to crash-land on the planet's dangerous Darkside. The PCs trek across an inhospitable, frozen landscape toward civilization, hoping there's still time to complete their mission...

SFS #4-05: A Waltz Through Myriad Worlds

Levels 1-4 • Fabby Garza, Quinn Murphy, Alexi Greer, and Katrina Hennessy

A group of Starfinders get the chance to explore an exciting new frontier by using a powerful artifact that transports them to alternate realities. SFS #4-06: Combatant's Concerto: Prelude to Revolution
